

great

1. The pearl dealers try to get Kino to sell his pearl to them for less than its worth. The pearl dealers offer Kino $1,500 for the pearl. Kino knows the pearl is worth more.
2. One morning when Kino wakes up Juana is up to. They both sense somebody over in the corner of their hut. Kino grabs his knife and leaps at the intruder. His first stab misses. His second stab goes in the intruder but he still manages to run away.
3. When Kino goes outside one night, he is attracted by someone and takes a blow to the head. He is bleeding and loses his senses for a minute.
4. One morning, Kino wakes up to find Juana moving about. He sees her walk out of the hut with his pearl. He chases her to the beach. Juana is about to leave Kino's pearl into the Gulf. When Kino punches her, grabs the pearl. Then, while she's down, he kicks her in the side and kisses at her, digging in his clothes, looking for his pearl. He stabs and kills this man. He feels somebody.
5. After killing the man Kino walks up to his hut. To his horror it is on fire. Kino decides they should leave immediately. He goes to his father's canoe. He then finds out there is a hole in the bottom of it. Kino finds this worse than killing a man. The reason he finds it worse is because he knows, a boat can not defend itself.
6. After the doctor found out Kino had a magnificent pearl he considered him a client of his. The doctors came over at night and gave Coyotito a pill that made him sick. The doctor came back an hour later and "cured him".